

Anna Kournikova WTT Update:

Anna Kournikova was named as a trainer for the hit NBC television show "The Biggest Loser" on Tuesday evening. Due to her production schedule with the show, the St. Louis Aces star will not be able to play in the World TeamTennis Pro League this summer.

"World TeamTennis has been such an amazing organization to work with for the last eight years and I have loved playing for the St. Louis Aces. I am disappointed that I won't be able to compete in the WTT Pro League this summer, but am incredibly excited for the new adventure ahead," said Kournikova. "I could not pass up the opportunity to use this amazing platform to be an advocate for health and fitness – a cause to which I have always been committed. I will remain an active supporter and look forward to doing whatever I can to continue to support Billie Jean King and the WTT League."

"This is a great opportunity for Anna to help promote a healthy fitness lifestyle to a national audience, which is something we try to do every day with World TeamTennis," said Ilana Kloss, WTT CEO/Commissioner. "We are all very excited for her and wish her great luck. Anna has been a tremendous supporter of WTT for years. We plan to continue to work with Anna and will look for ways to keep her involved in WTT throughout the year."
