

INTERN TICKET SALES DRIVE STARTS NOW!

Did you know that interns around the country are starving? That all they get from these "internships" is lousy college credit and experience?

Please help the Aces interns by buying Aces Tickets TODAY!

They are hungry, need gas money and most definitely need new shoes.

The Intern who sells the most tickets today wins $100 (which is like One Million Dollars to an Intern) and they get Friday off of work!

Chances are if you are reading this email you will get a call from one of the interns below. Please be gentle: this is just like a "teaching hospital," this might be their first time making a sales call or even taking a ticket order. At least they aren't trying to take a blood sample!

MEET THE 2009 ACES INTERNS

(The ones that are in the office today, at least!)

I'm Lexis (on the right) and you should buy tickets from me because I'm also in charge of the music selection at the matches. If I don't win this sales contest it is all soft rock, all the time! If I win this, I'll play your favorite songs!

You should buy tickets from me, Barbie, because I'M NOT EVEN AN INTERN, I work here full time and Dani is making me do this. This is my last shot at getting a day off before the season starts and I could really use a day off. And new shoes.

I'm Stefanie and you should buy tickets from me because I just started interning for the Aces and at Dwight Davis Tennis Center so if you want good court time at DDTC, buy from me! And I went to KU, so you KU Alums, help a fellow Jayhawk out!

I'm Kerry and I'm a SLU Swimmer and an Aces Intern. Buy tickets from me because you'll be supporting 2 sports, tennis and swimming! What good karma you'll get from doing that!

You should buy tickets from me, Erica, because my other job is Chaifetz arena and I am a wiz at assigning tickets. So if you want the best seats, you know who to buy from!

5 out of 5 Aces Interns Agree that a Saturday Night 2-Pack is the perfect Father's Day Gift!

Thank you in advance of your support of not only the 2009 Aces Interns, but the St. Louis Aces. We know that times have been a tough for everyone and as you might have guessed, since we are making the interns cold-call, ticket sales have been a little slow. We hope that our affordable ticket prices, discounted ticket packages and great all-star tennis talent will help you "Feed an Intern" today!
